

The Plan of Salvation Prior to Mankind's Creation

It is fascinating to witness the vast majority of folks who make an effort to address the Plan of Salvation only focus on a few segments pertaining to mankind's part in it. In doing so, they and their readers, miss out on a huge amount of Biblical information which describes and patterns a much larger Overall Plan than that just limited to man's portion in it. They miss out on understanding many of the dynamics which have shaped the very need for man to have been created to further it along. By that, we are talking about all the work and effort that went into the creation of the angelic realm and Their first go around in the Overall Plan. The Plan only partially succeeded and needed a "different" creation with its own beginning to assist in the success of the Plan instituted by the Elohim/Godhead.

In this section, we are addressing some of the milestone events which explain to us why there came a time, and a need, for beings who were temporary in their existence, and dependent on their surroundings for life which they would have to have authority over; beings who did not have "permanent life" in them. Unlike the angels, mankind would be completely dependent on the physical creation they were born into, one much more intimate relationship than the angels had with theirs. That is a very big difference and change in the Plan. It would be an intricate balance for life, requiring good decision making on man's behalf, to coexist in harmony with the physical creation/environment surrounding him. Many of the angelic beings were deceived into following Satan's mindset of disdain and contempt of their surroundings/estate on the earth, for they were not intricately dependent on it for life. However, they, some of the angels had been placed into the first Eden with a purpose in mind.

Roles of the two Elohim/Gods

In addressing the vast span of time prior to man's creation we will look to some of the oldest historical accounts recorded in scripture to learn who the principle parties were and what their designated functions were. The Bible is many things to us. First and foremost, it is an instruction manual for mankind on what to do to be healthy physically and spiritually. Secondly, it is a book of recorded history.

Everything we need for salvation is found in it and much, much more. Let's start in:

John 1:1-3 In the beginning was The Word, and The Word was with God (Elohim/Father) and The Word was God (one of the Elohim/Godhead). He was in the beginning with God (Elohim/Father). All things were made through Him (The Word) and without Him nothing was made that was made.

This is a time being recorded here which is so ancient we can't begin to comprehend its span through what we call time. Here we have two Eternal Beings existing with each other in a state of Oneness, complete harmony and cohesion of goals and cares. During some point in Their existence, these Elohim/Gods decided They wanted to share Their existence with others whom They could create in Their image and likeness, who could develop many of the same attributes as Themselves, so they would be able to enter into the same Oneness with them that They shared between Themselves. They agreed this was the path to take and decided what would need to transpire to bring it about. Not needing both of Them to conduct the actual work, They decided it would be The Word who would carry it all out. Please understand there is no vanity between these two Eternal Beings, just a deep abiding love for each other in thought, actions, etc. They hoped to develop this very same type of existence with those whom They would create.

So, the work of this first creation and the Plan, which in time needed the aspect of Salvation added to it, began with The Word creating the Angelic realm or Kingdom.

Hebrews 11:3 By faith we understand that the ages (all of them) were formed by The Word of God (Elohim) so that the things which are seen were not made of things which were visible.

This entire statement here, as it is able to be understood by mankind, is completely dependent on faith to believe it. We are not asked or instructed to understand it, just believe it, just like Abraham did. Faith is the most vital component in coming to grips with a time period so distant, when two Eternal Beings started Their creation Plan. Our ability to reason such things and prove them through our sciences and meager intellect at this time is impossible. Thus, the immediate vain babblings of denial by the intellectual scientific community of man. Mankind struggles with trying to come up with a more viable “physical” reason for our existence under the tutelage of Satan, of course. As such, they reject the knowledge of such things encoded and written out in the scriptures contained in the Bible.

In the beginning, there were only the two God Beings. Then the Bible speaks of an angelic creation followed by the creation of physical man. There was a physical creation during the time prior to man's actual creation. We will see this spelled out clearly in scripture and it is important to the overall knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of the Plan derived by it. These two Beings at times refer to Themselves as the “US” in Their decision making, even though just one of Them carries out the actual hands on work. Genesis 1:26, 3:22, 11:7; John 17:21.

They both have individual functions to carry out in Their existence and in the Plan itself. As well, They have collective functions which They undertake in the spirit of Oneness. Nothing is done without Them both being in agreement and then one of Them carries it out. That is why we see only The Word being acknowledged as the one who carried out all the collective agreements, which They had made decisions on, as to creation, prior to Him divesting Himself of all His glory to become a flesh and blood man. They were both Creators in that respect. That is also why They call Themselves the Elohim in Hebrew, which is plural, giving credence to both of Them, even though only one is the active member doing the work. This baffles many learned folks today. Christianity and Judaism are befuddled by it. Satan once again has done his job of deception quite well.

There is no jealousy, envy, or desire by either of Them to have dominion, one over the other. With that said, let's spend some time on defining who had what functions at various times in the Plan, which also confuses many today.

John 1:14 tells us the Being called The Word became flesh and blood through the glory of the other member of the Elohim/Godhead who we know under our Covenant terms and conditions as Father.

John 1:14 And The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father, full of favor, acceptance, and truth.

In this amazing passage and context of the Gospel of John, (which is correcting a lot of error which had entered into the congregations of the Church) we are being instructed about an epic event in the Plan, which had become a Plan of Salvation at this time out of necessity. Please understand, it did not start out that way, for sin was not present at the onset of the angelic creation, thus no salvation was needed. Up until this point in the Plan, The Word had done all the creating. That had now changed because He had divested Himself of all His divine glory and willingly yielded Himself to His eternal companion to further the Salvation part of the Plan along. It was at this time that They entered into a Father and Son relationship to better depict what would be needed to be done, as to humility, and the shedding of blood. Thus, Father was now taking over all the responsibilities and functions of creation. This is very, very important to comprehend and acknowledge to the overall understanding of the entirety of the Plan. This is when the Being we know as The Word became a physical being and was named Jesus (Latin) and later known as Christ (Greek). Of course, through our studies we know Him by many other names as well. However, John introduces Him to us initially as The Word and reinforces that in the Book of Revelation.

Revelation 19:13 He, clothed with a robe dipped in blood and His name was called; The Word of God.

Getting the roles between the two Elohim/Gods straight is very important to getting the timeline correct and who is who in its entirety. At this very time Satan is intensifying his efforts to deceive many on this very important understanding. The results are blasphemous doctrines to lead brethren astray. This knowledge is the absolute key to understanding the Plan in sincerity and truth and our personal part in it.

Before we address many of the facts, patterns, and history surrounding the Angelic Realm, let's continue in scripture to get a deeper understanding about the Being we know as The Word/Jesus. What exactly happened that enabled an eternal Being, part of the Elohim/Godhead, to be able to become a flesh and blood man?

Philippians 2:5-7 Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who subsisting in the nature of God (Elohim) thought it not usurpation to be equal with God (Father), but He emptied Himself (of all His divine Glory and placed it with Father, in His bosom) taking the nature of a slave, having become in the likeness of men.

This Eternal Being, emptied Himself willingly, humbled Himself, divested Himself of all His glory, which was equal to the Being we know as Father, to become a man, and not just that, but to be also seen as a slave for He was going to serve His creation in completing the ultimate sacrifice and example of love, and outgoing concern. The reason for this is, that during the time of the angelic kingdom sin entered into the Plan. Most today only understand the aspect that Jesus laid down His life to cover the sins of mankind through His shed blood. However, there was also a need to set the right example for the fallen angels who also entered into sin long before mankind did. Yes, sin existed long before man's sinning so obviously there were laws that existed as well for without law there is no understanding of sin (Romans 3:20; 1 John 3:4). The key to both is that they all fell for the lying deceits of Satan the devil, both angel and man. There was no requirement for The Word, to willingly submit Himself to His eternal companion, other than the fact that He had to dispel the lies of Satan to the angels about his me, myself, and I doctrine of only him being completely in charge and everyone else being subservient to him. That was not the pattern and way of the Elohim, They were equal in all as the scriptures have clearly pointed out. We are going to address in more detail later as to why this need was required. Our Savior will also be the Savior of the fallen angels at a future time and that is why He entered into a Father and Son relationship with His companion of eternity. He had no problem doing so because of the explicit trust and respect He had for Him. No vanity in Their relationship at all, ever!

When The Word emptied Himself of His glory, His eternal essence, Father held it for Him in His bosom, thus the understanding given in John 1:18.

John 1:18 No one has seen God (the Father) at any time; the only begotten Son who is in the bosom of the Father (has), who (in fact) reveals (explains Him).

Father impregnated Mary through His spirit with the essence of what The Word had been, minus His glory. As we will see, His glory will be returned to Him completely as it was before He emptied Himself of it. He first had to fulfill all the tasks needed for Salvation to be a reality.

John 17:5 And now Father, glorify Me together alongside Yourself, with the glory which I held with You before the existence of the world.

John 17:24 Father, I desire that they also whom You gave to Me, may be with Me where I am (a converted, qualified mindset) that they may behold My glory which you will deliver back to Me; for You loved Me before the conception/founding of the world.

We get a tremendous amount of information about many aspects of the Overall Plan in Colossians 1:12-18. Please remember these verses for they will be defining who is who in dealing with Satan when we get to those historical scriptures.

Colossians 1:12-18 Giving thanks to the Father (all glory goes to Him now as Jesus said) who has qualified us (Father does all the calling and drawing unto His Son under the terms and conditions of our Covenant which is a change from the first one) to be partakers of the inheritance (Romans 8:17) of the saints in the light (John 1:4). He has delivered us from the power of darkness (Satan and his minions) and changed our jurisdiction to the Kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God (Elohim/Father), the Firstborn over all which is created. For by Him (The Word/Jesus) all things were made/created that are in heaven (angels, stars, etc.) and that are on earth; visible and invisible, whether thrones or lordships, or rulers or authorities, all things have been created through Him and for Him (Why for Him?) And He is before all things, and all things (created) consist in Him. And He is Head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the Firstborn from the dead (to spirit composition), that He be preeminent in all things.

If we do not literally believe this, we will come up way short on the fundamentals of the Plan of Salvation.

Hebrews 7:3 tells us about this Being we know as The Word, and as we know from our studies; El, Elah, Eloah, El Sahadday, Adonay Yehovih, Jesus, Christ, etc. and now another one: Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but having been made the Son of God (Elohim/Father) remains a priest continually.

One of The Word's functions was to be the priest Melchizedek, the King of Salem. Our Savior has lots of names and titles in the many functions He has in the Plan.

We are also taught here that there was a time He was not in a Father/Son relationship with His eternal companion and that He had no mother. Notice the emphasis is on the eternal side of His existence. The very One He would be returning to after His work was completed in the flesh. We are told here that He had no beginning and no end. Some would argue that He died as a man. Correct, but His eternal glory never dissipated one iota, for it was with Father in His bosom for His keeping, end of argument. The spirit side far outweighs the temporary physical. We can also see here that a time came when He had to divest Himself of His eternal glory and take on that of a physical son in the nature of a man in every aspect. Once again, His eternal glory was kept in the Father's bosom (John 1:18). What did die was His flesh and blood temporary nature. There is a big lesson for us in that as well. It is part of the very essence of the Plan for we too will shed our temporary bodies for one of spirit existence.

Divesting Himself of all His glory was the most selfless and faithful act ever undertaken. That, in itself, set the example and, in fact, defeated Satan's doctrines of lies and deceits, as to having dominion one over another through any means possible.

In summing up some points we have covered before moving onto the angelic realm in scripture and the entering of sin, we have seen these two eternal Beings, the Elohim, were equal in Oneness. Under our Covenant terms and conditions, we know Them as Father and Son which is a very big change from those of the First Covenant with Physical Israel. These Elohim/Gods wanted to share the joy of Their existence with others of like mind, who would embrace the tenants of Their Oneness. They would need to be created in Their image and Likeness and develop Their character.

The Angelic Realm

Patterns in scripture instruct us The Elohim first created the angelic realm, beings made out of spirit and created perfect from the get-go, as we will see. We will see that sin entered in not of Their choosing. We will also see that there was a physical earth in existence at that time, to assist in developing the right character in angels. The earth was actually being used as a testing ground to see if the mind of El/The Word/Jesus was in them, the mind set of humility and service towards others. Could they be trustworthy with a creation that was inferior to theirs, was the big question, and could they do so being distanced from the throne room of the Elohim? Out of sight one might say.

The Overall Plan has two creations of sentient beings: one spiritual and one physical. The first is the spirit-composed angels who were created after the likeness (in composition) of the Elohim. In that composition, they could live forever (if the Elohim did not decide to end it). That was not a fragile existence. Then we have man who was created from the dirt of the ground, the very dirt Satan despised and looked down on (Ezekiel 28:18). Very ironic. It was a very fragile existence compared to that of the angels and depended heavily on the earth from which they came from to derive sustenance for continued life. Very important change in the Plan.

Angels had been created perfect as scripture will tell us repeatedly, however man was not. He was weak in much from the beginning for a reason. Man had to attain a state of perfection through a qualifying process. It was not just given. This was a big, big, change.

Now we will read about the history of the rise and fall of some of the angelic beings. Please keep in mind it was not all of them. The angels who did not sin are called Holy Angels and John tells us more than once that they are our fellow brethren and slaves in Christ (Rev. 19:10, 22:9). Angels were given various levels of authority and power as Colossians 1:16 addresses in general. Please keep in mind this was all brand new to the Universe with the ultimate purpose in mind of creating beings who could and would develop the character traits necessary to share eternity in harmony with the Elohim/Godhead. The basic underlying principle to do so, is to have complete outgoing concern for others as well as for creation as a whole instead of just for yourself. To accomplish this, they were given specific functions and tasks to perform which were intended to bring about the desired result.

We can sum a lot of this up by doing a quick study of the historical scriptures about the activities of Satan prior to his open rebellion and fall from his duties and privileges at the throne of the Elohim on the Sea of Glass on Mt Zion.

Ezekiel 28:12-13 ...Thus, says Adonay Yehovih (that's The Word/El): you were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and beauty (not the hideous creature man depicts him as). You were in Eden the garden of God/Elohim (we will see this Eden is the physical earth with ground and clouds) ...the work of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you (by El/The Word) on the day you were created."

Yes, the being we know as Satan now, was created perfect and was in the garden of Eden long before the creation of mankind.

Ezekiel 28:14-15 You were the anointed Cherub who covers; I (El/The Word) established you (just like Colossians instructs us and confirmed to Satan and his demons that he did not do it of himself); you were on the holy mountain (Mt Zion) of God (Elohim); you walked back and forth in the midst of the stones of fire (brilliant Sea of Glass). You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created (lots of emphasis on that point) till iniquity was found in you.

We are instructed here that Satan had been the anointed Cherub who covers the throne. That is important for a number of understandings. First, for the authority that it represented and the trust which was given to him. Secondly, today we know there are two Cherubim who do so because we are told the Ark of the Covenant has two Cherubim covering the mercy seat, the throne which is a replica of what is in heaven in Hebrews 8 and elsewhere. Once again, an important change, with two Cherubim now depicting the theme of two; unity, and Oneness, not just one at the throne as Satan desired for himself.

He had also been given the latitude to come and go as he pleased in the commission of his tasks and responsibilities within specific guidelines, for we know as fact that there were rules and regulations; laws, which needed to be followed. He was not being micromanaged but allowed to have some discretionary power just like at the beginning with man which we will cover in pattern later. This was all given as a test. He had everything he needed to be a success from the very beginning having been created perfect in all his ways.

But trouble entered into paradise as the saying goes. The “son of the morning” became discontent in his thinking: with the meager and trivial and eventually, demeaning tasks he was overseeing. He desired much more recognition and authority and ended up devising methods to secure it. He wanted praise from the angels who were entrusted to his oversight, look to me and not the Elohim, must have run through his mind continually and, no doubt, was a common theme of his politicking/trading.

Look how this unfolded:

Ezekiel 28:16-17 By the incessant abundance of your trading/politicking you filled your midst (entire inner being) with violence, and you sinned (scriptures tell us there can be no sin without a defining law for it, thus there were laws in place at that time). So, I (El/The Word) perished you from among the stones of fire, O covering Cherub (he was banished and stripped of his responsibilities at the throne on the Sea of Glass). Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you (no one else) corrupted your wisdom (which had been given him) because of your splendor. I (El/The Word) have cast you to the ground (what ground? The physical earth, the once beautiful garden of Eden which he destroyed with his dumbed down angels when they rose from it, to heaven, to usurp the Elohim). I (El/The Word) will put (future tense, a prophesy speaking about his demise) you before kings that they may see you. (they can't right now for he is spirit composed).

Verse 18 is describing his sentence being carried out at a future time after he has been used in the perfecting of mankind. What was the trespass of iniquity he was charged with that required death?

Ezekiel 28:18 You, by the incessant abundance of your iniquities, through the iniquity of your trading/politicking, you have profaned your consecrated sanctuaries (at the throne of God and on the earth; both of them) ...

We are reading about the age of angels which existed prior to the age of man. Satan did not feel he was being recognized for his great abilities and his great potential actually having to work with dirt as one of his consecrated sanctuaries. He was filled with rage and prone to violent actions because of his mindset. Jealousy, envy, conceit, arrogance, and vanity were busting out of his very being. Let's listen to Isaiah inform us of the results of all this.

Isaiah 14:12-14 O shining star, son of the morning, how you have fallen from the heavens! (Do you detect a hint of sarcasm here? Also note from the heavens plural for there are three heavens talked about in scripture). You who weakened the nations (once again prophetic, unless there were nations of angels which is an interesting thought) you are cast down to the ground (the earth you destroyed and ascended from). For you have said in your heart, to the heavens, I (me, myself, and I, and my dumbed down deceived angels) will raise my throne (he had one on earth which The Word had given him as Colossians 1:16 instructs) above the stars of God (El) and I (me, myself, and I alone) will sit in the mount of meeting (Mt Zion) in the sides of the north. I (me, myself and I, and my dumbed down angels) will rise above the height of the clouds (on earth), I (me, myself, and I) will be compared to the Most High (by my dumbed down angels).

Satan put in play all the politicking he could muster to entice and deceive the angels who he considered to be inferior to himself. No doubt he traded off positions of authority for his kingdom and all the evil empty promises of politics. He convinced many to leave the earth, their domain, sanctified sanctuary, and advance to the throne of the Elohim to usurp Their authority over the Angelic Kingdom. It only appears to have worked on those who had been separated from the throne room and not on those who functioned in and around it. The Elohim did not let this development go unnoticed and have altered much to accommodate it in our timeline in the Plan. We have direct access to Father and to Jesus our Husband at any time as one of the results of our Savior's/Husband's shed blood. It was a course correction!

The deceived and dumbed down angels who followed Satan to heaven to usurp the throne are addressed in Jude 6.

Jude 6: And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

Prior to their departure they followed Satan's lead in destroying its awesome beauty and splendor. No doubt it probably offended him thinking it was competition in beauty and dear to the Elohim/Godhead. Can't have any of that.

When they left the earth, they attacked the creation in the Universe on their way to the throne room in the far sides of the north. That is why Paul instructs us in Romans 8:19-21 of what he does.

Romans 8:19-21 For the earnest expectation of the creation is eagerly expecting (not just waiting for) the revelation of the sons of God. For the creation was not willingly subjected to vanity, but through Him subjecting (it to Satan to do a good job with it but who ended up damaging it heavily in his tantrum for power and trying to impress the dumbed down angels) on hope, (now it's up to us) that also the creation will be freed from the slavery of corruption (imposed on it by Satan) to the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

Biblical history tells us that after destroying much of the physical creation he had been placed over to maintain and enhance, Satan tried to usurp the throne in heaven of the Elohim. Keep in mind what has been, will be again. Satan will once again be emboldened to mount an attack on the throne with his minions because of the astounding success he is having with mankind in turning them from the truth and worship of God/Elohim. Just think after all that he went through in defeat, he will once again be able to convince his dumbed down angels to attack the Elohim. That is a tribute to his deceptive powers. Satan will be deluded enough in his own mind that he will think the Elohim will once again destroy man from the face of the earth like They did during the flood because of all the inherent evil covering it which he has brought about. That is his hope and desire and what fuels his sick mind. However, the time will come when he knows he has but a short time and will in his conceit and frustration once again attempt to usurp the Elohim in Mount Zion in the side of the north. Unfortunately for him and his crew, they are going to be really humiliated this time, for El/The Word, lets Michael and his angels do the smack down. We can read about it in Revelation 12:7-9.

The Creation of Man and Judgment of Angels

Now we have come to the point where we need to address the creation of man and the start of his testing on the earth. Not attempting to jump too far forward, but we are told in scripture that the saints will judge angels (1 Corinthians 6:3). Why would Paul say that? What understanding had been imparted to him by Christ to give this to us? Let's follow that through for a moment so we are prepared to understand future events in the Plan.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God (Elohim) did not spare sinning (law breaking) angels, but delivered (them) over to bindings of darkness, thrust down to Tartarus (a deep inescapable abyss of Hades) and keeping them until (the time of) judgment.

Here is a mouthful in the Overall Plan. As we have seen, there were angels who sinned, some were outright deceived in our opinion and some were not. All in all, the sin was blatant. For sin to be forgiven, first there needs to be an accounting of the sin and a recognition by the sinner to acknowledge their part in it. If they do not, it is the end of their existence by a loving Creator who does not want to see unrepentant beings in a kingdom of peace and harmony and joy. So, where does this leave us with the angels who sinned?

Jude 6 And those angels not keeping guard from loss and injury their first principality, but having forsaken behind (their) own separated habitation (the earth/Eden), He has maintained (them) in ever enduring bindings under darkness, until (the) judgment of a great Day.

Here, we read exactly the same thing spoken by Peter but with more information. Jude tells us the sinning angels are being held in darkness until a judgment day. Actually, a great judgment day. That may be a hint as to the timing of it. But what else is important here is Jude's description of what they did to qualify as sin. They had been given a function to guard the earth from injury and loss. That is exactly what the Greek means here in this context and the historical pattern of it in scripture. In the rebellion they shared with Satan, they are being held accountable for the reality of what they actually knew. That is the responsibility each and every one of them had been given to do on the earth. They were to develop character traits of the Elohim by joyfully caring for a physical creation with a temporary existence and which they deemed inferior for them. Plain old dirt and the things which sustained life from it. A fragile existence compared to them. They, in fact, were to function as its legal protector and caretakers, they were to shepherd it. This is a theme throughout the Plan. We have addressed it often in many of our previous studies to recognize and then instill that trait in ourselves when it comes to others in the body. This is the mind of the Elohim.

We need to also have a desire in us for this creation which sustains us daily. Not the way the sick religion of environmental worship surrounding us, but in a deep and abiding respect for it as a gift from God. The angels are not off the hook for their hand in destroying it and the life that may have been on it at that time. Of course, this is all before the creation of mankind. What we do not see is them being held accountable for attacking the throne room. This is fascinating because Satan is the master of deception and deceit. He, no doubt, had dumbed them all down as to the reality of what they were really doing just as he has deceived the whole world at this time except for the few Father has called and our Husband Jesus has chosen. That in itself is another test in humility and serving others with that knowledge.

Here we are mankind living on a repaired earth and being deceived by the same master of deception. We, the descendants of father dirt: Adam, have been given many similar commands as the angels who were entrusted to this habitation and if not for the direct spirit of God dwelling in us, we too would be at a loss to Satan's deception. Having access to Elohim is one of the big course corrections made to assist us in finishing our qualifying process to dwell in Oneness with Them forever. Do not look past this lightly. The angels who were placed on the earth were a long way from the throne room with the "prince of the power of the air" in between them and the Elohim. Lesson learned no doubt and correction made when They created man.

Enter now one of our future responsibilities to judge angels. They failed in much of the same as we have been given. We are in a constant battle with Satan and his minions for control of our calling. Who better to judge angels than mankind who fell under the same circumstances? We will know and understand exactly what they went through. What if they acknowledge their wrong doing on a great day's judgment to come? What if they repent? It's all part of the Overall Plan of Salvation, folks.

Have you ever asked yourself, if the angels are all bound with bindings of darkness in a deep abyss of Hades, why do we see angelic beings conducting evil in the gospels? We know Satan will not be thrown into an abyss and covered over until the Day of Atonement. Revelation 20:1-3.

We can certainly speculate from patterns that there are those of the angelic realm who have sinned who will never repent. Satan is the prime example. There are members of mankind who will do exactly the same and thus, the reason for the Lake of Fire. It is obvious that there are some angels as incorrigible as Satan who are still being used in the Plan to perfect others. It is also conceivable according to the patterns, that the vast majority of angels being held for judgment, may not be incorrigible (2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6).

Yours to ponder.

Summary

The Plan of Salvation is in place for both angels and man. It is important to note that there have been many changes made to the original Plan to accommodate all that was learned from the first time around. We will pattern many of them.

Next in our study we will turn to the events of Genesis, to pick up where Satan and the fallen angels left off. The earth is in a state of chaos and confusion no longer recognizable as the Eden the Elohim had created.

Please keep in mind that the physical theme of Genesis chapters 1-3 is found in:

Romans 1:19-20 ... because the thing known of God (Elohim) is clearly known within them (846 autos), for God (Elohim) revealed it to them (846 autos); for the unseen things of Them (846 autos: the Godhead/Elohim) from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things made, both Their (848 hautou) eternal power and Godhead, for them (846 autos) to be without excuse.

Autos (G846) is traditionally translated as “His,” illustrating the translators’ biased understanding of the Godhead. A grammatical equivalent would be “They or Them,” a third person plural translation of autos that more accurately represents the patterns of Elohim and the Godhead. Noteworthy is the translation of this same word in the same sentence by translators as “they or them” when referencing mankind. The same is true for verses before, after, and throughout the New Testament, where autos is translated as the third person they, them, or their when referring to man. It is when this word autos refers to God that we see the biased religious filters of the translators understanding of the Elohim applied. They allow this bias to influence their translation of this word as a singular pronoun (His, Him) versus a plural pronoun, Their, Them, They. In reality, the same Greek pronoun was used for both singular and plural cases of the third person. Strong’s #G846 says: the reflexive pronoun; self, used (alone or in the compound of G1438 -heautou) of the third person, and (with the proper personal pronoun) of the other persons. - her, it (-self), one, the other, (mine) own, said, ([self-], the) same, ([him-, my-, thy-]) self, [your-] selves, she, that, their (-s), them ([-selves]), there [-at, -by, -in, -into, -of, -on, -with], they, (these) things, this (man), those, together, very, which. Compare G848. G1438 –heautou says it includes all the other cases.
